Invitation to Self Identify as a Protected Veteran Pre-Employment

This employer is a Government contractor to the Vietnam Era Veteran's Readjustment Assistance Act of 1974, as amended by the Jobs for Veterans Act of 2003, 38 U.S.C. 4212 (VEVRAA), which requires Government contractors to take affirmative action to employ and advance in employment: (1) disabled veterans; (2) recently separated veterans; (3) active duty wartime or campaign badge veterans; and (4) Armed Forces service medal veterans. These classifications are defined as follows:

"Disabled Veteran" would mean a veteran who:

1. Is entitled to compensation (or who but for the receipt of military retired pay would be entitled to compensations) under laws administered by the Secretary of Veterans Affairs, or
2. Was discharged or released from active duty because of a service-connected disability.

"Recently Separated Veteran" would mean a veteran who served on active duty in the United States military, ground, naval, or air service, during the three-year period beginning on the date of such veteran's discharge or release from active duty.

"Active Duty Wartime or Campaign Badge Veteran" would mean a veteran who served on active duty in the U.S. military, ground, naval or air service during a war or in a campaign or expeditions for which a campaign badge has been authorized, under the laws administered by the Department of Defense.

"Armed Forces Service Medal Veteran" would mean a veteran who while serving on active duty in the United States military, ground, naval or air service, participated in the United States military operation for which an Armed Forces service medal was awarded pursuant to Executive Order 12985.

Protected veterans may have additional rights under USERRA-the Uniformed Services Employment and Reemployment Rights Act. In particular, if you were absent from employment in order to perform service in the uniformed service, you may be entitled to be reemployed by your employer in the position you would have obtained with reasonable certainty if not for the absence due to service. For more information, call the U.S. Department of Labor's Veterans Employment and Training Services (VETS), toll-free, at 1-866-4-USA-DOL.

If you believe you belong to any of the categories of protected veterans listed above, please indicate by checking the appropriate box below. As a Government contractor subject to VEVRAA, we request this information in order to measure the effectiveness of the outreach and positive recruitment efforts we undertake pursuant to VEVRAA.

I identify as on or more of the classifications of protected Veteran listed above.

I am not a protected veteran.

Voluntary Self-Identification of Disability

Form CC-305
OMB Control Number 1250-0005
Expires 01-31-2017

Why are you being asked to complete this form?

Because we do business with the government, we must reach out to, hire, and provide equal opportunity to qualified people with disabilities. To help us measure how well we are doing, we are asking you to tell us if you have a disability or if you ever had a disability. Completing this form is voluntary, but we hope that you will choose to fill it out. If you are applying for a job, any answer you give will be kept private and will not be used against you in any way.

If you already work for us, your answer will not be used against you in any way. Because a person may become disabled at any time, we are required to ask all of our employees to update their information every five years. You may voluntarily self-identify as having a disability on this form without fear of any punishment because you did not identify as having a disability earlier.

How do I know if I have a disability?

You are considered to have a disability if you have a physical or mental impairment or medical condition that substantially limits a major life activity, or if you have a history or record of such an impairment or medical Condition.

Disabilities include, but are not limited to:

Blindness	Autism	Bipolar disorder	Post-traumatic stress diorder (PTSD)
Deafness	Cerebral palsy	Major depression	Obsessive complusive disorder
Cancer	HIV/AIDS	Mulitple sclerosis MS	Impairments requiring the use of a wheelchair
Diabetes	Schizophrenia	Missing Limbs or	Intellectual disability (previously called mental retardation)
Epilepsy	Muscular dystrophy	partially missing limbs

Please check one of the boxes below:

- Yes, I have a disability (or previously had a disability)
- No, I do not have a disability

Reasonable Accommodation Notice

Federal law requires employers to provide reasonable accommodation to qualified individuals with disabilities. Please tell us if you require a reasonable accommodation to apply for a job or to perform your job. Examples of reasonable accommodation include making a change to the application process or work procedure, providing documents in an alternate format, using a sign language interpreter, using specialized equipment.

Section 503 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, as amended. For more information about this form or the equal employment obligations of Federal contractors, visit the U.S. Department of Labor's Office of Federal Contract Compliance Programs (OFCCP) website at www.dol.gov/ofccp.

PUBLIC BURDEN STATEMENT: According to the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995, no persons are required to respond to a collection of information unless such collection displays a valid OMB control number. This survey should take about 5 minutes to complete.

Applicant Fitness Standards

These standards are universal. There is no deviation in regard to set, age or weight. The listed times or repetitions are the minimums which must be achieved by each applicant.

Although not required, we strongly suggest participants consult with their own doctor, as to their current physical condition, to determine their individual ability to perform these assessments.

1. Run: A test monitor will give the candidate verbal instructions to "GO" and the candidate will begin the run around the gym (approximately 332 total feet).
2. Step and Slite to Left: At the conclusion of the run, the candidate will remain facing the wall directly in front of him/her, and then step and slide sideways (shuffle) to their left into the obstacle course, and continue stepping and sliding sideways to their left for a distance of about 30 ft. Candidates should not cross their legs as the shuffle to the left to prevent tripping themselves, and they should shuffle all the way until their foot touches the line about 30 feet away.
3. Diagonal Shuffle to Rear and Right: After stepping and sliding 30 feet to their left while still facing the wall directly in front of them, candidates will step and slide backwards (rear diagonal shuffle) to their right and behind them (at an approximately 35 degree angle) for approximately 33 feet. They will continue to face the wall while doing this. Candidate should not cross their legs as they shuffle backwards and to the right to prevent tripping themselves, and they should shuffle all the way until their foot touches the line about 33 feet away. Once their foot touches the line, they will turn around and face the opposite wall before performing the next component.
4. Step and slide to the Right: After completeing the backwards diagonal shuffle, and after turning around so that the candidate is facing the wall opposite of the one they were facing in the previous two componensts, the candidate will step and slide sideways (shuffle) to their right for a distance of about 30 feet. Candidates should not cross their legs as they shuffle to the right to prevent tripping themselves, and they should shuffle all the way until their foot touches the line about 30 feet away.
5. Diagonal Shuffle to Rear and Left: After stepping and sliding 30 feet to their right, and while still facing the wall directly in front of them, candidates will step and slide backwards (front diagonal shuffle) to their left and behind them (at an approximate 35 degree angle) for approximately 33 feet. They will continue to face the wall while doing this. Candidates should not cross their legs as they shuffle backwards and to the left to prevent tripping themselves, and they should shuffle all the way until their foot touches the line about 33 feet away. Once their foot touches the line, they move on to the next component.

6. Crawl on Stomach: After the rear diagonal shuffle, candidates will get on their stomachs and crawl a distance of approximately 20 feet using their elbows and forearms only, and with their legs bent so that their feet are up in the air. Candidates will crawl with their elbows and forearms, and without the use of their legs (simulating legs that are not functioning), until they are able to touch the floor with their hand just behind the end of the floor mat. After crawling for about 20 feet and touching the floor at the end of the mat, candidates, will get up safely and proceed to the next event. Candidates should take care to get up safely, orient themselves and then proceed to the next component.

7. Bear Crawl: Candidates will get down on their hands and feet only with their hands behind the line, and then crawl a distance of approximately 20 feet using their hands and feet only. Candidates must reattempt this component while the time is running if their knees, elbows, or other parts of their body touch the floor during the component. Candidates must bear crawl the distance of 20 feet all the way until both of their feet are across the line. After bear crawling for about 20 feet, candidates will get up safely and proceed to the next event. Candidates should take care to get up safely, orient themselves and then proceed to the next component.

8. Obstacle Dodge: The candidate will maneuver, in a zig-zag manner, around obstacles (which are traffic cones positioned on the ground).

9. Weight Drag (approximately 95 lbs): The candidate will drag a weight completely past a line 20 feet away. Timing of the test stops when the entire weight passes over the line.

To pass the obstacle course, members must successfully complete all components in 2 minutes and 22 seconds or less.

Applicants will need to wear the appropriate dress to complete these assessment tests. You, as the applicant, will be responsible to bring water or sports drink for your own use.
